Introduction of the 4 DISC Personality Types of Behavior

The terms "personality" and "temperament" are synonymous to most people. When we use these terms, we are referring to the predictable patterns of thoughts, feelings, and behaviors. There are many theories about personality types. The DISC Model is simple to understand, easy to remember, and practical to apply.

Understanding our active or passive roles (extroverts and introverts) helps us identify our specific temperament styles. By combining these two different categories of influences, along with our task and people-orientations, we end up with four specific types.

Everyone has a predictable pattern of behavior because of his or her specific personality. There are four basic personality types. These types, also known as temperaments, blend together to determine your unique personality. To help you understand why you often feel, think, and act the way you do, review this entire repost.

Our personalities should never become an excuse for poor behavior. The attitude of many is: "That's just the way I am, but we should not blame others for our personalities."

Each temperament style and personality determines a model of behavior style. Of temperaments, we use the DISC model:

For Review

Learn how we use or abuse our personalities. We understand the four quadrant DISC profile. To simplify the four types, the following are the four quadrants:

"D" - active / task-oriented

"I" - active / people-oriented

"S" - passive / people-oriented

"C" - passive / task-oriented

Once you burn these four quadrants in your mind you can begin to easily identify the different personality types. It will also help you become more effective in your work and home. Each personality has its strengths and weaknesses. Conflict or harmony in relationships and job performance are the result of how we use or abuse our personalities in response to life's situations.

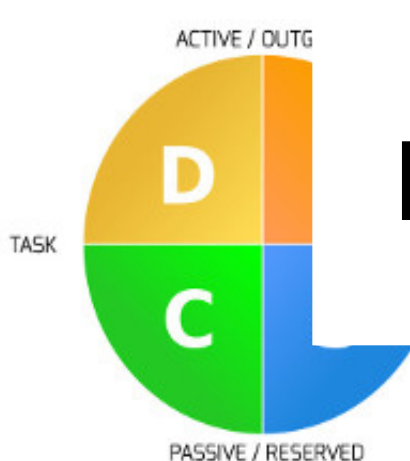

Keep in mind that 85% of people tend to be composites of DISC; therefore, most people will be blends and combinations of the evident characteristics in the four personalities. There are numerous variations of this model. Speakers, writers, and trainers have added their own titles to make the model more simpler or personal, but this four vector explanation of basic human behavior has become very popular. The DISC personality profile (paper instrument) was originally designed by Dr. John Geier and has been validated by the Kaplan Report and Winchester Report.

The DISC profile and Model of Human Behavior stands out as one of the most reliable and practical available today.

You have a predictable pattern of behavior because you have a specific personality. There are four basic personality types. These types, also known as temperaments, blend together to determine your unique personality. Review the following insights with a specific person in mind, or find the type that describes your specific Graph 1 personality type.

Your Personality Type on Graph 1: "This is expected of me!"

Description

As a "D / S / C" or "D / C / S" or "S / D / C" or "S / C / D" or "C / D / S" or "C / S / D" you think people expect you to be strong, serious, and sometimes surprise people with your sweetness, sensitivity, and composure. You might think people expect you to be aggressive because of your aggressiveness, but you constantly sit still and move forward. You also like to plan and prepare more.

For Review

You tend to be more passive, but you can be active and decisive, but you need to balance any abrasiveness or aggression with a crowd pleaser. You seem to not consider yourself as reserved, but there is a part of you that doesn't like to be in charge while cautiously moving forward. You need more assurance. You tend to communicate it well to the masses.

How Others See You

You are often seen as a blend of strength, sensitivity, and serious thinking. You don't tend to be viewed as a "glory hog" who needs a lot of attention. You think people want you to be humble, but you are self-assured with a well of knowledge. You are recognized as one who can be challenging, but you are reasonable and thorough. You think others feel you have a lot of answers to difficult questions because you like to research and investigate more than most. You are often seen studying or organizing others to accomplish tasks well.

Your Feelings and Thinking

You tend to feel like you can do just about anything you put your mind to. You think people want you to be confident and courageous, but you sometimes doubt yourself because of your need for security and more information. You aren't really extroverted, plus you don't seem to desire opportunities to speak to large crowds. You would rather work through small groups and individuals as a personal support to them. You tend to think positively about your ability to do great things, but you also struggle at times because of your subconscious passivity and occasional negative thinking.

Vision and Passion

Your vision is widespread as well as focused. You tend to see the big picture and details that need to be considered. You think people expect you to be committed to accomplishments and excellence with a tender heart. You seem to flip back and forth when it comes to a secure and stable environment. On one hand you don't need anyone to make you feel comfortable and on the other hand you don't like people to be disappointed in you. You sometimes don't care what others think; then there are times you can be very sensitive. You don't tend to be verbal or talk a lot, but you can communicate well in small groups. You also often like to be by yourself thinking and planning

Leadership Style

Your leadership style is more of a mixture of active and passive behavior. You tend to be aggressive and reserved. You think people expect you to be demanding, directing, sensitive, soft and cautious. You seem to have many good traits, but sometimes lack enthusiasm and excitement when speaking to crowds. You aren't a charismatic leader with great communication skills or public persona. You influence others well and demonstrate since you lead more by example and personal

Follower Style

You tend to be a good follower. You let others tell them what to do. You don't like to give commands. You are often a good listener. You are competent. You like to follow. You guard your aggressiveness through your cautiousness. You tend to plan and prepare a lot so you will be wiser and able to follow your leaders in a sure and steady fashion.

Responds Best To

You respond best to those who have a plan, plus you take things slowly and methodically. You don't get real excited by energetic and upbeat presentations. You prefer challenging, steady, and outlined programs, as opposed to hyper and empty appeals. You don't respond well to those who tend to be careless or sloppy. You like things organized and effective. You are a great team player and you don't care who gets the credit as long as you don't get the blame.

Conflict Management

You prefer dealing with conflicts straight on, but you tend to approach them gingerly and analytically. You think people expect you to see both sides fairly and then make a decision one way or the other. You don't care that much about being popular. You just want to make the correct decision. You tend to gather information and research more than others so you can come to the wisest conclusions. You aren't afraid of conflicts, but you tend to be unsure of making decisions quickly or too slowly.

Strengths and Uniquenesses

You are strongest when it comes to being sure of yourself publicly. Sometimes you can be insecure because you may be unsure of yourself privately. You tend to be outwardly confident, but inwardly timid. Your uniqueness, or what others may call your weakness, is your public speaking and inspiration. You don't tend to be openly enthusiastic or outgoing. You sometimes don't seem to be friendly, except when in small groups or with individuals. You don't tend to stand out in a crowd or seek to be heard.

Overuses and Abuses

You tend to overuse your dominance and competence. Sometimes you are too easygoing and people try to take advantage of you. They soon discover that you can be stubborn and defiant when people try to get you to do things wrong. You think people don't want you to be concerned about being popular or friendly to everyone. You tend to be cordial and kind, but you don't need to be in the limelight or receive attention. You sometimes turn around and are scared. You sometimes tend to be too hard on others, and you tend to overanalyze and prepare.

Guard Against & Watch

Don't hesitate to speak up. You have great substance and ideas. Be sensitive when you speak. Try to ensure the job gets done. You prefer working with small groups. You prefer working with individuals. You sometimes tend to be too hard on others, and you tend to overanalyze and prepare.

For Review

You have many opportunities, even though you often tend to be both challenging and demanding. You would rather work behind the scenes than be the center of attention. You are people-oriented, but not with individuals. Overcome your disinterest in public speaking, and force yourself to inspire and influence the masses. Don't let your quiet and sometimes humble attitude hold you back from communicating with conviction, warmth, and information.

Relating Style

You seem to relate in several different ways. You think people want you to be more passive, but you also can exhibit active and aggressive behavior. On one hand, you relate well with individuals in a quiet and slow way. However, you can also challenge large crowds with your dreams and research. You also tend to be sensitive and kind, especially when working with small groups and individuals. You seem to relate well in several different dimensions. You don't try too hard to make a good impression while speaking to large groups or publicly influencing others to promote your causes.

Conclusion

You stand out in many good ways, but you don't seek to be the center of attention. This is not bad, but may hinder your effectiveness. You may need to work on your friendliness and charisma.

People respect that your strong convictions are combined with your sensitive spirit. They also respect your competent preparation. Nevertheless, you seem to lack the enthusiasm to exhibit all that you have going for you. Be more excited. Whenever possible, take advantage of speaking to large groups so that you can share your dreams, warmth, and wise counsel. You will be able to complete more tasks, comfort even more people, and improve your results.

When Both Graphs Are Generally The Same

Your Uniquely You Personality Profile contains basic insights on how you tend to think, feel, and act from a DISC temperament type's perspective. When both your Graphs 1 and 2 are generally the same, the profile is easier to understand than if Graphs 1 and 2 are different. Similar graphs simply mean that you tend to be consistent in public and in private. How you respond at work or publicly is generally the same as how you think, feel, and act at home among friends and relatives. Having similar graphs is common, but has specific challenges when it comes to being flexible or adapting to others.

Similar graphs suggest that you are comfortable with your overall behavior. You tend to respond the same in most situations. People find you easy to read and understand. This also may mean that you are not very flexible, or that you perhaps need to loosen up and adapt to challenge differently. Having similar graphs is both a strength and a weakness when dealing with others. You relate on a consistent basis, but may need to respond differently than how you normally might think or feel.

Additionally, you may be revealing you feel that people expect you to behave in the same way among fellow employees and associates at work, or publicly outside your more personal and familiar environments (Graph 1), as you behave at home under pressure among your closest friends and relatives or in more familiar environments (Graph 2). Keep in mind that Graph 1 is your behavior “expected of you” when you have your guard up and mask on (usually at work or in less familiar environment: guard, or take your mask more familiar environment: let your hair down, drop your closest friends and relatives or in

Case Study or Example of an Immature or Out-Of-Control “D/S/C” Type

Here’s an example of “D / S / C” or “D / C / S” or “S / D / C” or “S / C / D” or “C / D / S” or “C / S / D” types who seem very passive, but out of control they can be extremely aggressive. They tend to be more task-oriented than people-oriented. They focus more on completing tasks.

They prefer to be relational with individuals rather than crowds. They would rather be behind the scenes with small groups than up front in large groups. They are more introverted, than extroverted.

When these types are immature, their driving and demanding demeanor makes them lose control of their responses. They tend to not do well with anger management. They often become surprisingly forceful. They don’t tend to be emotional, but they can be very stubborn.

On one hand they seem to be very kind and sensitive, while analytical and contemplative. On the other hand, they can come across as demanding and determined. They naturally don’t seem very friendly or outgoing. They are not very entertaining.

When speaking publicly, they seem to be very knowledgeable of their subjects. They have some confidence and competence. They seem to have a triple-edged sword, and competence.

Their greatest challenge is to be very knowledgeable of their subjects. They tend to lack the confidence and undisciplined they seem to have. They tend to lack the confidence and undisciplined they seem to have.

They would greatly improve their effectiveness if they would guard their aggressiveness under pressure, and be livelier, socially expressive, avoid withdrawing from crowds, and not worry or fret so much. They have a lot going for them, but sometimes trip over their own strengths.

These types are behaviorally pulled in many different directions. They make great friends on an individual basis, but can be a little bossy and critical. They are not known for their outgoing and bubbly personality. When pressured and out of control, they can be very difficult.

People find them hard to understand, because they tend to be distant and moody. They can be very kind and caring at times. When stress attacks them and they don’t guard their personalities, they can become dull and distant.

When in control of their feelings, thoughts, and actions, they make great workers, mates, parents, and friends.

Case Study or Example of an Mature or In-Control “C / S / D” Type

Here’s an example of a “D / S / C” or “D / C / S” or “S / D / C” or “S / C / D” or “C / D / S” or “C / S / D” types who seem very passive, but out of control they can be extremely aggressive. They tend to be more task-oriented than people-oriented. They focus more on completing tasks.

/ S / D” type who has learned to control his personality, rather than crumbling under the weight of life’s pressures. Most people struggle with stress, but only those who adapt, rather than attack or outright surrender to their feelings, often succeed in life.

This person has a tendency to be passive because he is naturally submissive and cautious. His unusual innate driving and determined tendencies sometimes override his withdrawn and reserved ways. He often surprises others with strong indications that he wants to be in charge.

He doesn’t seek attention, nor does he desire to be recognized. He seriously enjoys getting projects done through hard work and careful planning; He likes to enjoy the companionship of individuals more than the energy of a crowd. He does not seek attention or approval.

He tends to be more laid back, but also has the drive and determination to tackle difficult tasks. He enjoys working on projects, especially with a good friend who appreciates his preciseness and quality control.

This person is probably mature because he has learned to smooth his rough edges over time. He has taken charge of his life, but not at the expense of his determination. He prefers to be in charge, but not at the expense of his determination. He would also rather work behind the scenes improving things than being in the spotlight. This person shows his maturity by his balance of being passive, plus he demonstrates slowness.

He can also be task oriented and can investigate and evaluate things opposed to large gatherings.

He can get lost in a crowd, because he doesn’t seek to be seen or recognized. He has disciplined his ego and doesn’t dominate discussions. He seldom interrupts in conversations and seems to always say the right things.

He isn’t foolish or silly. He sometimes comes across as unfriendly, but once you get to know him, he can be a dear friend. His maturity is best seen under pressure/ While others who are like him may explode with anger, he knows how to keep his cool. When others are sarcastic and critical, he is more positive and kind.

He can be a successful leader who lives by example.

Graph 1: "This is expected of me"

"This is expected of me" is your response to how you think people expect you to behave. It's your normal guarded and masked behavior.

Description: As a "D / S / C" or "D / C / S" or "S / D / C" or "S / C / D" or "C / D / S" or "C / S / D" you think people expect you to be direct, submissive, and competent. You tend to be more passive, but you sometimes surprise people with your dominant ways. You can be active and decisive, but your sweet, sensitive, compliant, and conscientious feelings seem to balance any abrasiveness or forcefulness you might exhibit. You don't tend to be talkative or a crowd pleaser. You seem to think people expect you to be more quiet and shy. You often don't consider yourself as reserved because of your aggressive and assertive tendencies. There is a part of you that doesn't like to constantly sit still and wait for things to happen. You like to be in charge while cautiously moving forward. You also like helping those who may be hesitant or need more assurance. You tend to plan and prepare more than others, but you don't always communicate it well to the masses.

Spiritual Gifts

The Bible confirms that you were "wonderfully" made (Psalms 139:14). God's plan and purpose was to create a person that is Uniquely You. He gifted you to glorify Him with specific influences - naturally and supernaturally. As a Christian, you have a Godgiven personality and spiritual gifts that motivate you.

Discovering how God created you can be exciting and enlightening. Knowing and exercising your motivation is vital to spiritual victory. The following information is designed to help you understand why you do what you do. Hopefully, this will result in personal growth, avoiding as well as resolving conflicts, and fulfilling ministry.

You should constantly examine yourself to sharpen your focus on God's will and on serving Him. You can also learn why you feel, think and act the way you do. Self assessment and discovery should always lead to obedience and a deeper walk with the Lord.

Your Primary Spiritual Gifts Descriptions

Spiritual Gifts are supernatural motivations given to every believer. Everyone doesn't receive the same gift. Just as many parts of the human body work together as one, so Spiritual Gifts are given to the Body of Christ to serve as one.

Their purpose is to encourage and mature Christians for more effective ministry. These gifts are featured based upon their functional and practical use.

Administration / Ruling

The Gift of Administration / Ruling is seen in those who either like to organize or delegate to others. Compelled by a strong sense of duty, they like to find things for people to do. Unlike the Gift of Ministry, the Gift of Administration / Ruling focuses on team participation. They see the big picture and work to keep everyone on track. Not always personally organized, they prefer delegating tasks. They simply like to evaluate what needs to be done, then design systems or give responsibilities to those gifted to forge forward as a group.

Teaching

Christians with the Gift of Teaching know that the things they are teaching are true. While the prophet declares truth, the teacher explains the reasons why it is true. Interested in research, those with the Gift of Teaching like to dig into seemingly insignificant details. They enjoy presenting what they discover. Often negligent of the needs of others, they press toward a deeper understanding. They love to study. Searching patiently and persistently, they may miss the obvious. They stretch the limits of learning, setting high standards of education.

In a word: In-depth

Overuse: Digs too deep

Goal: Reveal truth, don't exhaust it

Scripture: Rom. 12:6,7b; Col. 3:16; Jam. 3:1; 2; 2 Tim. 2:2

Evangelism

Christians with the Gift of Evangelism feel compelled to win souls. They seem to have the ability to communicate the gospel very effectively. Their concern for witnessing to a lost and dying world is evident. They desire to be involved in ministries to reach people for Christ. The Gift of Evangelism motivates them to want nearly every message they hear to include the gospel and an invitation to trust Christ. Missions and outreach are important to them. Always being ready to give an answer to every person is their goal. Conversations seem to often turn toward eternal values. The worth of souls and the task of evangelism are most important to the Evangelist's motivation.

In a word: Dynamic

Overuse: Zeal

Goal: Build disciples, not statistics

Scripture: Eph. 4:7,11; Acts 8:26-40; Luke 19:1-10

Pastor / Shepherding

The Gift of Pastor / Shepherding is obvious in those who really enjoy leading others in serving the Lord. Unlike the Gift of Ministry / Serving / Helps, this gift involves the motivation to lead. Pastor / Shepherds are compelled to encourage others to work together for the body's sake. Influencing others to work together is important. Stressing a need for team participation, they emphasize harmony. Untrained lay-people can also have the Gift of Pastor / Shepherding. They see their service as one of maturing others. With a motivation to unite the ministry, they feel strong about spiritual health.

In a word: Discipler / Leader

Overuse: Takes Advantage of Others' Trust

Goal: Strong leadership, not manipulating the flock

Scripture: Eph. 4:11; 1 Tim. 3:1-7

Involvements / Spiritual Gifts

One of the best ways to grow as a Christian is to get involved. Identifying your natural and spiritual motivation will help. Many believers desire personal growth, but seldom find a rewarding ministry.

Administration / Ruling

Abilities: Organizing or delegating tasks.

Opportunities: Group Leader, Office, Personnel.

Warning: Avoid thinking everyone will get involved.

Reward: Seeing people work together to accomplish difficult tasks.

Prayer: Dear God, Help me to be tolerant to those who don't respond like I think they should.

Evangelism

Abilities: Comfortably

Opportunities: Visitation, Outreach, Missions.

Warning: Don't think everyone should be as dedicated to evangelism as you are.

Reward: Leading people to Christ glorifies God.

Prayer: Dear God, Increase my vision for the lost, while helping me to understand why others do not share my burden.

Pastor / Shepherding

Abilities: Ministering to groups needing leadership.

Opportunities: Committee Chairperson, Visitation.

Warning: Don't get discouraged with those who don't follow.

Reward: Seeing the ministry improve.

Prayer: Dear God, Help me be patient with those who are apathetic or spiritually weak.

Fitly Joined Together

The following are just short lists of potential ministries. Your past and present experiences should also enter into your search for a good fit. Consider your spiritual gifts, personality type, interests, passions and experiences in making your choices. Add to the lists any ministries you think would also fit that gift. Once you have chosen 3 - 5 opportunities for ministry, be sure to notify your pastor, a spiritual leader, or ministry coordinator. Then get involved as soon as possible.

The following are opportunities for ministry in relationship to your Spiritual Gifts. With your gifts in mind, look at all the ministries available. You should also consider many other gifts not included. You may also have various passions and interests that would cause you to fit well in a specific ministry not listed. If you are already involved in a ministry that doesn't seem to match, don't think you shouldn't be involved. Remember Moses!

The most effective Leader is the blended Servant Leader. These type individuals learn how to adapt and become "all things to all men. "They understand that everyone is often motivated by their specific personality. They guard their strengths from overuses, and improve/perfect (2 Cor. 12:9-10) their "uniquenesses / weaknesses.

Blended Servant Leaders allow the Holy Spirit to control their drives, passions, and wills in order to motivate others more wisely. Servant Leaders are Transformational Leaders who raise people up to follow on a higher plain. Anyone can be a Servant Leader. Your giftedness and "DISC" personality type is not most important. It's your relationship with God and others that makes the difference. God doesn't always call the qualified, but He always qualifies the called!

How to handle conflicts

One of THE greatest hindrances to spiritual growth is conflict. Excited Christians, desiring to serve God, are often discouraged because of misunderstandings and clashes with other Christians.

This section is designed to help you discover why Christians often do what they do under pressure. It may explain why you may conflict with others. Scripture is clear on how to handle clashes. The problem is many Christians are not aware of their motivations. Even Spiritual Gifts can be overused and abused. They can be used to control your feelings, to control your gifts, to control your mind. Read each section to see how you may respond and consider how you may respond.

To improve your effectiveness, control your behavior!

Combining Personalities with Spiritual Gifts

Discovering your personality and Spiritual Gifts should result in maturity and involvement in the Body of Christ. Grow for it!

The unique feature of these combinations is to understand how your specific personality type relates to your spiritual gifts. There are dichotomies - unique blends and combinations. No one has a bad composite blend. Many combinations are more common than others, but there is no wrong or abnormal combination.

There are uncommon blends (but not abnormal blends); such as, the Gift of Showing Mercy and a "D" type personality. Most people with Showing Mercy have "S" personalities. But God sometimes gives certain people this unique combination. It's a "strange bedfellow" or "oxymoron", like "gentle strength" or a "velvet covered brick." The two don't seem to mix or mesh, but God makes no mistakes and does what He pleases to gift you for His glory.

A Christian with a "D" type personality is the kind that will bite your head off and then apologize on your personality and the Gift of Prophecy is also like the person who cries about it. The Prophet Jeremiah is a good example of Submissive type Christians with the Gift of Administration are concerned about getting tasks done in steady and stable ways. They need to be more assertive and aggressive. "S" Administrators can be too sacrificing. They are faithful in whatever they do, but need to inspire others to help. They can be quiet leaders, challenging others by example. They tend to be shy. Sometimes, they surprise others with their serious concern to accomplish tasks. "S" Administrators are achievers who like to work through small groups.

Stable type Christians with the Gift of Teaching are systematic researchers. They like to teach steadily, step by step. Their simple, but insightful instruction often lacks excitement. They need to be more animated. "S" Teachers make faithful and loyal friends, but often resist conflict. They should strive to be more interested in results, than relationships and revelation. Concerned about harmony and accuracy, they can be too sweet and slow to share why something is true. You can count on "S" Teachers for thorough explanations.

Introduction

Personalizing your faith is vital to spiritual growth. Making your faith more personal involves developing your relationships with others and God's local church. Every Christian should be "plugged-in" to the Body of Christ. Being committed to a local church, whether officially or not, is so important to victorious Christian living. Once you decide where you are going to worship, you should then decide where you are going to work for the Lord. Every member should also minister to others! Scripture References: Eph. 4:11 & Acts 8:5-6

Prophecy / Proclaiming —

Prophets today are not exactly like prophets of old. Old Testament Prophets spoke the literal Word of God. Today people with the Gift of Prophecy seem to have the same seriousness and straight forward attitude toward truth. They like to share truth, regardless of what anyone thinks. Prophets today are motivated to confront anyone with what they believe is right. When controlled by the Holy Spirit, the Gift of Prophecy is a powerful tool to reprove, rebuke and exhort others. Prophets often find themselves pointing the way, declaring specific truth or standing up for something significant.

In A Word: Bold

Overuse: Fighter

Goal: Declare truth, don't divide Christians;

Ministry Opportunities: Personnel committee, Ministerial staff search committee, Benevolence committee, Planning committee, Nominating committee, Teacher, Researching issues, Speaking out on current issues, Missions committee, Missions officer.

Encouraging / Exhorting —

Christians with the Gift of Exhortation find themselves encouraging others. They are compelled to give advice. As counselors, they seem to often have steps of action. While Prophets declare truth and Teachers clarify truth, Exhorters like to tell you what to do with truth. They bless others with a strong sense of concern. Often looking to encourage others, they are sought out as counselors. People find Exhorters friendly, understanding and practical. They enjoy using their communication skills to share specific insights.

Showing Mercy —

Christians with the Gift of Showing Mercy demonstrate genuine sensitivity to suffering. They are compelled to help people reduce pain. They are concerned more with the person, than the reason for the suffering. Focusing on the feelings of those who hurt, Showers of Mercy strongly desire to minister by "being there" when people really need them. Sympathizing and/or empathizing are their specialties. While others may care more about why, what, when or how, those with the Gift of Showing Mercy are interested in "who" needs tender loving care.

In A Word: Caring

Overuse: Too Sensitive

Goal: Wise insights, not foolish responses;

Ministry Opportunities: Benevolence committee, Mission projects, Food and Clothing Center, Mission trips, Mission organization leader, Inreach/Outreach leader, Care group leader, Nursing home ministry, Funeral home ministry, Prison ministry, Counseling, Prayer group leader, Prayer chain organizer.

Scripture References: Rom. 12:8 and Acts 9:36

Serving / Ministry —

When you think of Christians who serve faithfully behind the scenes, you think of those with the Gift of Ministry. They are interested in blessing others to serve the Lord. They love to help others. Motivated by a strong sense of need, they feel like "someone has to do it." Caring and concerned for others, they find themselves doing what no one else likes to do. They tend to do whatever called for. Flexible, they adapt to many challenges. They simply enjoy helping others and meeting needs. Often truly selfless, those with the Gift of Ministry like to be involved.

In A Word: Selfless

Overuse: Takes on too much

Goal: Be a servant, not a martyr

Ministry Opportunities: Fellowship committee, Recreation committee, Lord's Supper preparation, Baptism assistant, Kitchen committee, Hospitality committee, Building and grounds committee, Usher, Transportation, Church office volunteer, Care group leader, Food and Clothing Center, Church hostess, Food planning/preparation, Revival planning.

Important — NOW WHAT?

Once you have identified your specific personality profile and spiritual gifts, the following information is designed to help you avoid and resolve conflicts, while getting involved in ministry.

One of the most practical things you can do to grow as a Christian is to find a ministry to serve the Lord. The problem in involvement often results in misunderstandings and offenses.

Everyone responds to conflicts according to their motivations — the predictable patterns of behavior and spiritual interests.

Prayerfully review the following pages with the insights of who you are and how God can use you. Remember, God wants to bless in ways you never dreamed possible. Be open to any opportunity to serve the Lord.

Historical Background

The Four Temperament Model of Human Behavior is attributed to Hippocrates, the father of modern medicine. His scientific research and brilliant observations are universally accepted. Contrary to what critics claim, the Four Temperaments did not hatch from archaic pagan greek philosophy, but rather the scientific process that made Hippocrates the respected physician of his day.

The DISC Model of Human Behavior was first introduced by William Marston in 1928 through his book, The Emotions Of Normal People. Marston took Hippocrates' Greek titles and assigned simple and single D, I, S, and C letters to each. Though there are now many titles to various models, they all have roots from the same basic four temperaments discovered 400 B.C.

Dr. John Geier, Chairman of the Human Behavior Science Department at the University of Minnesota designed the first paper assessment that identified a person's DISC personality type from a business and personal perspective in 1977.

How To Read The DISC Graphs

Each graph describes a personality in a different way.
Look at each graph and find the highest plotting point.

Notice in Example A, the highest point is “C.” The next highest point is “S.” This profile is a “C/S” type personality.

“C/S”s are cautious and steady. They like to do one thing at a time and do it right the first time. They also like stable and secure-oriented surroundings. They don’t like to take risks or cause trouble.

“C/S”s need to be more outgoing and positive. Their Behavioral Blend is “Competent Specialist.”

To help you read the graphs, also notice the lowest plotting points. The example shows “I” as the lowest point. It simply means that this person doesn’t enjoy inspiring or interacting with people, while he or she tends to be more shy and calculating about things.

This person is more reserved than outgoing. He or she likes people on an individual basis. The low “I” is not bad. It only indicates a low interest in enthusiastic and carefree behavior.

Example B shows a graph person is more active than passive people. They like to control and sit still or work on one thing at Notice the “S” and “C” plot person is not so concerned with and calculating actions. Low “I” types.

Example C is an “I/S” type personality. “I/S”s love people. They are active/outgoing in their “I” and passive/reserved in their “S”. They don’t like tasks. They need lots of recognition and a stable environment. Their “D” and “C” are low, meaning they are not assertive/dominant or logical/contemplative types.

Your profile may be different. It really doesn’t matter what your personality is. The important thing is that you control your personality, rather than allowing your personality to control you.

Remember, there is no bad personality. We need to accept the way we and others naturally respond as unique traits. Everyone doesn’t think, feel or act the same way. Once we understand these differences we will be more comfortable and effective with ourselves and others.

To learn more, be sure to study the Behavioral Blends.

Understanding The Two Graphs

Two graphs are identified for each person. They will help you understand how each person feels, thinks and acts. There is no bad profile. Each graph simply identifies a specific way the person looks at life.

GRAPH 1: “This is expected of me” is the response to how the person feels and thinks people expect him or her to behave. The person is telling you, “This is how I feel you want me to be” or “I think you want me to act like this.”

People understand early in life that there are acceptable and unacceptable actions. Everyone is influenced by these thoughts and feelings.

GRAPH 2: “This is me” is the person’s response to how he or she feels and thinks under pressure—how the person really feels and thinks inside. The person is revealing how he or she will naturally respond when he or she does not think about what is expected of him or her — usually “me”.

Everyone is born with a natural personality, plus our environment and peers, plus our environmental personalities into predictable patterns.

If GRAPHS 1 and 2 are understood, reading the personality will be easier. If the person may be struggling with a personality type, the person may be of him or her and how he or she may be very consistent with what he or she is. Having two different graphs is not a problem and is normal for many people.

The examples show a “D/I” type in GRAPH 1 and “I/S” in GRAPH 2. This person is revealing that he or she thinks people want him or her to be more dominant, even though he or she really isn’t that type. This person is also more “S”—submissive and security oriented than what he or she feels is expected of him or her.

To understand how to read the two graphs, focus on each plotting point under the DISC columns.

Every point in the upper third is considered high. Every point in the middle third is mid. Every point in the lower third is considered low.

The higher the plotting point, the more that DISC letter describes the person’s behavior. Study this entire report to understand how to apply what you learn about yourself and others.

DISCOVERING YOUR BEHAVIORAL BLEND

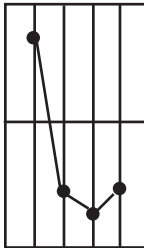

There are four basic personality types known as D, I, S, and C behavior. Everyone is a blend or combination of these four temperaments. No type is better than the other. No one has a bad personality. The most important factor is what you do with your personality. Don't let your personality control you; instead learn how to control your personality.

To help you discover more about your specific behavioral style, there are 21 Behavioral Blends. One or two Behavioral Blends will best describe you. Few people are pure D, I, S, or C types. Most everyone is a combination of the four types. Remember, it doesn't matter what personality you have, as much as what you do with it. (Continue instructions next page.)

D: DETERMINED DOERS

"D"s are dominant and demanding. They win at all costs. They do not care as much about what people think as they care about getting the job done. Their insensitivity to feelings makes them too strong. They are great at developing things, but they need to improve their ability to do things correctly. Their strong will should be disciplined to prepare and think more accurately about what they are doing. They are motivated by serious challenges to accomplish tasks.

D/I/C: DOMINANT INSPIRING CAUTIOUS

"D/I/C"s are demanding, impressing and competent. They tend to be more task-oriented, but can be people-oriented before crowds. They need to increase their sensitivity and softness. They don't mind change. Active and outgoing, they are also compliant and cautious. They like to do things correctly, while driving and influencing others to follow. Their verbal skills combine with their determination and competence to achieve. Security is not as important as accomplishment and looking good.

D I S C

Observe the 21 Behavioral Blends on these two pages. Choose the one or two profiles that are most like your graphs. Read the brief paragraph descriptions of the ones that are most like you. You will probably be a combination of two specific profiles. You can also have some characteristics of other types, but will normally fit into one or two Behavioral Blends.

Every personality has strengths and weaknesses (uniquenesses). One person's weakness may be another person's strength. That's why "uniqueness" may be a better word than "weakness." In order to be more successful and improve your relationships, you must learn how to control your strengths and avoid your "uniquenesses." Always remember that under pressure you lean toward your strengths. The over-use of a strength becomes an abuse, and the best thing about you becomes the worst. The characteristic that people once liked most about you can become what they later despise.

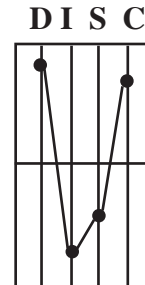

D/I: DYNAMIC INFLUENCERS

"D/I"s are impressive, demanding types. They get excited about accomplishing tasks and looking good. Determined and driven, they influence large crowds best. They can be too strong and concerned about what others think. They have good communication skills and are interested in people. They need to be more sensitive and patient with the feelings of others. Learning to slow down and think through projects are crucial for them. They are motivated by opportunities to control and impress.

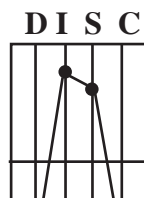

D/C: DRIVING COMPETENT TYPES

"D/C" Types are determined students or defiant critics. They want to be in charge, while collecting information to accomplish tasks. They care more about getting a job done and doing it right than what others think or feel. They drive themselves and others. They are dominant and caustic. Improving their people skills is important. They need to be more sensitive and understanding. They are motivated by choices and challenges to do well.

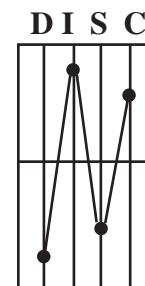

I/S: INSPIRATIONAL SPECIALISTS

"I/S"s are influential and stable. They love people and people love them. They like to please and serve others. They do not like time controls or difficult tasks. They want to look good and encourage others, but often lack organizational skills. They follow directions and do what they are told. They should be more concerned about what to do, than with whom to do it. They are motivated by interactive and sincere opportunities to help. Regardless of being up front or behind the scene, influence and support others. They make good and obedient workers.

I/C: INSPIRATIONAL COMPETENT

"I/C" Types are inspiring, yet cautious. They size up situations and comply with the rules in order to look good. They are good at figuring out ways to do things better through a lot of people. They can be too persuasive and too concerned about winning. They are often impatient and critical. They need to be more sensitive to individual feelings. They are often more concerned about what others like breaking the rules; neither like to try new things just the crowd. They are careful to think things through.

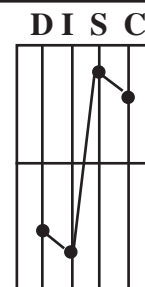

S/D: STEADY DOERS

S/D"s get the job done. They prefer stable surroundings and are determined to accomplish tasks. As quiers, they relate best to small groups. They do not talk in front of large crowds, but want to control. They enjoy secure relationships, but often do them. They can be soft and hard at the same time. They are motivated by sincere challenges that allow them to systematically do great things. They prefer sure rather than shallow recognition. They make good while driving to succeed.

COMPETENT TYPES

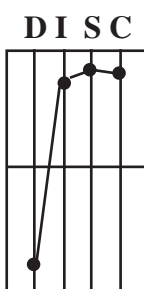

and contemplative types. They prefer the facts. They like to weigh things slowly to a logical conclusion. They are good at figuring out ways to do things better through a lot of people. They can be too persuasive and too concerned about winning. They are often impatient and critical. They need to be more sensitive to individual feelings. They are often more concerned about what others like breaking the rules; neither like to try new things just the crowd. They are careful to think things through.

C/I/S: COMPETENT INFLUENCING SPECIALISTS

"C/I/S"s like to do things right, impress others and stabilize situations. They are not aggressive or pushy people. They enjoy large and small crowds. They are good with people and prefer quality. They are sensitive to what others think about them and their work. They need to be more determined and dominant. They can do things well, but are poor at quick decision-making. They are capable of doing great things through people, but need to be more self-motivated and assertive. They are stimulated by sincere, enthusiastic approval and logical explanations.

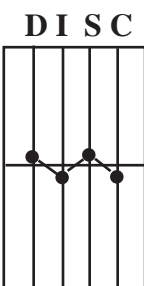

C/S/D: COMPETENT STEADY DOERS

"C/S/D"s are a combination of cautious, stable and determined types. They are more task-oriented, but care about people on an individual basis. They don't like to speak in front of crowds. They prefer to get the job done and do it right through small groups, as opposed to large groups. They tend to be more serious. Often misunderstood by others as being insensitive, "C/S/D" types really care for people. They just don't show it openly. They need to be more positive and enthusiastic. Natural achievers, they need to be more friendly and less critical.

STRAIGHT MID-LINE

A Straight Mid-Line Blend occurs when all four plotting points are close together in the middle of the graph. This may indicate that the person is trying to please everyone. Striving to be "all things to all men" may indicate mature response to pressure. Or it may confirm frustration over the intensity differences under pressure. The person may be saying, "I really don't know what my D, I, S, or C behavior should be or really is." The person may want to do another profile after a while to see if there is any change.

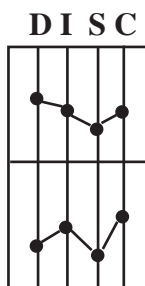

ABOVE MID-LINE • BELOW MID-LINE

Some patterns indicate unique struggles an individual may be having.

An Above Mid-Line Blend occurs when all four plotting points are above the mid-line. This may indicate a strong desire to overachieve.

A Below Mid-Line Blend occurs when all four plotting points are below the mid-line. This may indicate that the person is not really sure how to respond to challenges.

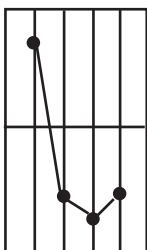

CONTROLLING YOUR BEHAVIORAL BLEND

The "bottom line" is allowing the Holy Spirit to control your personality. People often say, "I just want to be me." They want to find themselves and be "real." The problem is when you really find yourself, you often don't like what you find. You might be so dictatorial, self-seeking, insecure or critical that God seems powerless in your life. The so-called "real" or natural you can be opposite of what God wants you to be. You should not seek to be normal, but spiritual; not natural, but supernatural — to do what you do through the power of God in your life, to be what God wants you to be through a personal relationship with Him by faith in Jesus Christ as your Savior and Lord (Eph. 2:8-10). Be conformed into the image of Christ. (Continue instructions next page.)

Once you discover your Behavioral Blend/s, you can clearly recognize the areas God wants to work on. The Bible is the best source to help you. "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness" (2 Timothy 3:16). The following are specific scriptures each Behavioral Blend should consider. These scriptures are admonitions and challenges to help you focus on becoming more like Christ. You should grow spiritually to the place in your life where people really don't know what personality you have. Balance and maturity should be your goal. Ask God to use these scriptures to encourage and empower you. Don't let them discourage you. The Word of God is quick and powerful, sharper than any two-edged sword. It can discern and deliver you from a self-centered attitude of "me-ism." Learn to be so controlled by the Holy Spirit that God gets the glory in all you say and do (Ephesians 5:18).

BIBLICAL EXAMPLES OF PERSONALITY TYPES

The Bible is full of examples of unique personalities. Some individuals were aggressive and outgoing, while others were withdrawn and quiet. One type is not better than the other. Biblical behavior is balanced and mature.

Scripture demands both behavior. Mark 16:15 tells us, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel." Psalm 46:10 encourages us to "be still and know God." Both are different, yet commands.

Mary and Martha are good examples of opposite types. Martha was more active and task-oriented, while her sister, Mary, was more passive and people-oriented. Martha demonstrated "D" type behavior (John 11:20), while Mary showed "S" type behavior (John 11:20).

The Apostle Paul was definitely a "D" type. He was left for dead, imprisoned, stoned, forsaken and forgotten, yet he pressed on toward the high calling of God. He didn't worry about what anyone thought about him, except God. He also learned obedience and submission after God crushed him on the road to Damascus.

Sarah exhibited "D" behavior. She grew tired of waiting for God to give her the child He dominated and devised her own way. She wanted to have a child. Sarah then raised the child her own. When she didn't like the way Isaac behaved, she blamed Abraham. She also demanded He be dominant; however, her self-assured behavior enabled her to leave her home destination. She knew it was the right thing.

Thomas, the Disciple, exhibited "C" behavior. He doubted Christ's resurrection. "C"s need evidence to questions. Jesus didn't belittle Thomas, but gave him the evidence needed to serve the Lord in a great way. Historians record Thomas became an extremely effective missionary to India.

Esther seems to be a good example of "C" behavior. As the queen, she was willing to comply with the rules and requirements of her position. Yet when it became necessary to "bend" those rules, she wanted to make sure that it was done correctly. Esther prayed for reassurance and wisdom to proceed cautiously.

One of the most important lessons you can learn is that you don't have to let your personality type control you. Instead, allow God to control your personality and you will come out to be the winner every time!

It will be an exciting day when you understand how the Holy Spirit wants to also control your personality — the specific way

When Lazarus' brother died, both said the exact same thing to Jesus (John 11:21, 32), but Jesus responded differently to each one. The lesson is we should respond to people according to their personalities—not ours. We should be "all things to all men, that we might by all means save some," (Rom. 11:14).

Individual DISC behavior is illustrated in the Scriptures. God uses all types of personalities to complete His plan and purpose. The most important lesson is don't let your personality control you, instead let God control your personality—let God fill (control) you with His Holy Spirit (Eph. 5:18).

Peter demonstrated "I" type behavior every time he spoke up for the disciples. He was often very dramatic. One moment Peter promises, in front of a crowd, to never forsake Christ, then a little later he denies the Lord, when no one is watching, to a young maiden. Yet God used Peter in a great way at Pentecost.

Ruth showed "I" behavior when she convinced Naomi to let her travel with her. Ruth demonstrated family loyalty spirit by her willingness to move to a new land. She was creative and industrious — so much so that Boaz, who was inspired and respectful and loyal. Ruth also was optimistic in her pursuit of Boaz.

Moses showed "S" behavior when God told him to lead the people of Israel out of Egypt. Moses was unsure of himself. He even tried to get Aaron to be the leader. "S" type personalities don't like to be "up-front" telling everyone what to do, but God sometimes calls people to do great things in spite of their personality types.

Hannah is a good example of "S" behavior. She was submissive and remained faithful, even though her dreams were not fulfilled. She may have appeared "unstable" when she prayed in the temple. However, her reaction after praying shows she was very stable. She wanted the security that came with bearing children in her day. Hannah also wanted the support of her husband. She needed children to have an identity within her environment.

that you think, feel, and act. He didn't want to just control your tongue, habits, and lifestyle. God desires to also be the Lord of your personality. Let God control you with His Holy Spirit! "And do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with the Spirit," Ephesians 5:18.

COMBINING PERSONALITIES WITH 9 SPIRITUAL GIFTS

The following are combinations of D, I, S and C type personalities with 9 Spiritual Gifts. Be sure to read the instructions at the top of the next page.

"D" Type Personalities With The Gift of Evangelism

Dynamic and demanding type Christians with the Gift of Evangelism can be extremely effective. They are self-starters with a sense of urgency. But their driving concern to win souls can make them too pushy. "D"-Evangelists should be more gentle and patient. Determined to get the job done, they often feel like everyone should be involved in evangelism. Direct with their presentations, they like sermons that explain the gospel and offer invitations to trust Christ. "D"- Evangelists are dedicated to "making Him known."

"I" Type Personalities With The Gift of Evangelism

Influencing type Christians with the Gift of Evangelism are most enthusiastic about soul winning. They are also very contagious — cheerleaders for Christ. Interested in people, they are "natural-born" witnesses. "I"-Evangelists make sharing the gospel look so easy. Because of their strong desire to impress, they may care equally about what people think of them and leading others to Christ. They must constantly remember God gifted them to shine for Him, not self. "I"-Evangelists can win many souls to Christ.

"D" Type Personalities With The Gift of Prophecy / Proclaiming

Demanding type Christians with the Gift of Prophecy make great preachers. They articulate correctness with persuasion. They use enthusiasm and emotions to convince others. In their reaction, they need to guard against verbal abuse. "D"-Prophets should season their speech with great impressions, they must remember Who they defend. "D"-Prophets are inspiring

2. Read the sections of D, I, S or C and Spiritual Gifts influences on the Interpretation page which correspond with your highest plotting points on your Graphs 1 & 2.
3. Look for opportunities for ministry to use your "giftedness" —
 - Search the Scriptures for insights on how God can use you.
 - Ask your minister or mature Christian friend to guide you.
4. Get involved in a ministry ASAP.
5. Pray God will control you and make you "all things to all men."

"D" BEHAVIOR (Active / Task-oriented)

Abilities: Lead, take stand, confront issue, persevere, dictate, make decisions and control.

Opportunities: Organize needed ministry, chair Stewardship Committee, head Usher's Committee, commit to specific challenge.

Warning: You want to control everyone, but must first control yourself. Remember, "to have authority, you must be under authority." Be loyal to your leaders.

Reward: Follow your spiritual leaders. Allow Christ to be the Lord of your life, and God will way to move the ministry forward.

Prayer: "Dear God, control my dominant personality, so I can be a making leader for your glory."

"C" BEHAVIOR (Passive / 1

Abilities: Analyze, improve, discern directions, do the right thing.

Opportunities: Finance Committee, planning, office, record information, research, teach, organize and order curriculum.

Warning: Due to your cautiousness, criticism comes easy. Don't always be pessimistic and hard to convince. Increase your faith in God and trust those you follow.

Reward: Ministers need competent people to fulfill their visions. You can be a great blessing if you continually look at the possibilities, rather than impossibilities.

Prayer: "Dear God, help me be optimistic in the midst of problems — a source of encouragement to those who find faith and victory difficult."

"I" BEHAVIOR (Active / People-oriented)

Abilities: Communicate, inspire, influence, make friends, optimism, enthusiasm.

Opportunities: Give public testimony, drama, social committee, greeter, encourager, lead discussion group and visitation.

Warning: You naturally outshine others. Don't serve purely through your "personality." Also, pride and sinful lusts will destroy your testimony.

Reward: God designed you to shine for Him. When He shines through you, He will use you in ways you ever imagined.

"I, keep me humble to do your will, give you and those who praise me the glory you have done."

R (Passive / People-oriented)

Abilities: Listen, serve, specialize, finish what others start, be the scenes, do what needs to be done.

Opportunities: Answer phone calls whenever needed, hospital visitation, encourage new members, office, keep records, telephoning and counseling.

Warning: Shyness hinders your opportunities to do great things for God. Be more aggressive and assertive. Be careful, people may take advantage of you.

Reward: Believing God's promise that you can do all things through Him who strengthens you, step out and try the difficult. You may be surprised what God can do.

Prayer: "Dear God, I know you use the weak things to confound the mighty and I often don't feel capable of serving you, but through your grace I will."

For Review

Everyone: You should never use your personality as an excuse not to do what God commands everyone to do. For example, the Bible commands you to do the work of an evangelist. "D"s and "I"s may feel more comfortable talking to people about Christ, while "S"s and "C"s may not. Yet everyone should share the "good news." "S"s may feel more comfortable working behind the scenes, but God may call a "S", like Moses, to lead a group. Or God may call an "I" to work behind the scenes. You must learn to "be all things to all men that we might by all means save some." Whatever you do, do it through Christ. Read Gal. 2:20.

"Choose You This Day Who and Where You Will Serve"

The following are a few suggestions where you might "fit" best in ministry. Remember, God may lead you to do things you don't feel qualified or comfortable doing. But God always empowers you to do what He calls you to do.

There are also many challenges every Christian is called to do; such as praying, witnessing, etc. Don't let the lack of a specific spiritual gift or personality type discourage you from doing what the Bible commands. You may also feel compelled to be involved in other ministries not listed. You may even desire to be involved in ministries listed under different personality types.

Choosing where to be involved can be easy. First, pray God will give you wisdom about how your specific personality, spiritual gifts, talents, interests and experiences relate.

The Lord may also direct you to get involved in ministries that don't seem to fit your "giftedness." Sometimes your passions and interests create a burden to be involved in unrelated areas. God can use you in a great way as you allow Him to do His work through you.

The most practical way to discover where to serve is to consider the ministries that need your personality and spiritual gifts. For example, you may have a "S" type personality with the Gift of Serving / Ministry / Helps. Look for an opportunity to serve behind the scenes doing those things most people don't want to do — like the Kitchen or Library. You can receive deep satisfaction knowing God uses you to meet special needs.

If you're an "I" type with the Gift of Encouraging / Exhorting, you may want to get involved in a more active and aggressive outreach opportunity. "S" types prefer more passive "friendship" or "relationship" type evangelism or counseling.

"D" types with the Gift of Prophecy / Perceiving would

1. Community Awareness type ministry.

2. perceive and declare truth.

opportunities listed with your specific spiritual gift in mind. There may be other needed. You may want to consider your experience. For example, you may not fit with the Gift of Showing Mercy, but you can win the lost. Your passion and experience fit well in an evangelism ministry.

Communicate with the appropriate ministry leader about your personality type, spiritual gifts and experience. Ask for counsel concerning where others may think you fit best. Scripture teaches, "In the multitude of counsel there's safety."

Temporarily volunteer to serve in various ministries. Notice how you fit and feel as you serve. Be sensitive to how the Holy Spirit uses your involvement to help others and bless you.

Choose 3 - 5 "Opportunities For Ministry" To Consider:

Fitly Joined Together with 9 Spiritual Gifts

The following are opportunities for ministry in relationship to Spiritual Gifts. With your gifts in mind, look at all the ministries available. You should also consider many other gifts not included. You may also have various passions and interests that would cause you to fit well in a specific ministry.

If you are already involved in a ministry that doesn't seem to match, don't think you shouldn't be involved. Remember Moses!

Your past and present experiences should also enter into your search for a good fit. In summary, consider your spiritual gifts, personality type, interests, passions and experiences in making your choices. Once you have chosen 3 - 5 opportunities for ministry, be sure to notify your pastor, a spiritual leader or ministry coordinator. Then get involved as soon as possible.

How To Handle Conflicts

Often, the greatest hindrances to healthy relationships are personality conflicts. Positive individuals, desiring to build good relationships, are often discouraged because of misunderstandings and clashes with others.

This section is designed to help you discover why people do what they do under pressure and why you may conflict with others. Life's success principles on how to handle clashes are clear. The problem is many people are not aware of their "sensitive spots." Everyone needs to learn more about avoiding and resolving conflicts.

Every personality has its "hot button." Everyone can act like a "D" when pushed too far. The following are tendencies of personalities as they relate under pressure.

Review the following pages with your Behavioral Blends in mind. Read each section to see how you may respond as a specific personality type. Also consider how you may respond differently because of your "hot and cold buttons."

To improve your effectiveness, control your personality and never use it as an excuse for poor behavior!

Remember — Most problems today are not theological — they're relational — personality conflicts and clashes with others.

"D" Behavior and all Spiritual Gifts

Under Pressure:

Becomes dictatorial, dominating, angry, intense, forceful

Sources of Irritation:

Weakness, indecisiveness, lack of — discipline, plan, direction, authority, control

Needs To:

Back off, seek peace, relax, reacting, control self, be — friendly, loyal, kind, sensitive

"I" Behavior and all Spiritual Gifts

Under Pressure:

Overly optimistic, immature, emotional, silly, wordy, selfish.

Needs:

Realism, pessimism, details, time management, doubt, structure, team participation.

Control, control emotions, strong, disciplined, punctual, honest, conscientious.

"C" Behavior and all Spiritual Gifts

Under Pressure:

Becomes moody, critical, contemplative, negative, worrisome.

Sources of Irritation:

Incompetence, disorganization, foolishness, dishonesty, inaccuracy, wastefulness, inconsistency, blind faith, false impressions.

Needs To:

Loosen up, communicate, be — joyful, positive, tolerant, compromising, open, trusting, enthusiastic.

"S" Behavior and all Spiritual Gifts

Under Pressure:

Becomes subservient, insecure, fearful, weak-willed, withdrawn, sympathizer, sucker.

Sources of Irritation:

Pushiness, instability, inflexibility, anger, disloyalty, insensitivity, pride, discrimination, unfairness.

Needs To:

Be — strong, courageous, challenging, aggressive, assertive, confrontational, enthusiastic, outgoing, expressive, cautious, bold.

Natural Responses To Conflict —

"D"s — Want To Attack
"I"s — Want To Expose Others
"S"s — Want To Support or Submit
"C"s — Want To Criticize

Recommended Wise Responses —

"D"s — Restore With Love
"I"s — Make others look good
"S"s — Care Enough To Confront
"C"s — Examine Own Self First

Leadership Insights

Most everyone responds to life's challenges and choices according to his or her personality.
Therefore, individuals who relate to others must be personality wise.

For example, High "S" leaders should not engage High "D" followers in small talk. "D"s prefer leaders who get-to-the-point. They want "bottom line" answers. They respond best to those who are not going to waste their time.

On the other hand, High "S" followers feel comfortable with leaders who are systematic, slower, and steady in their approaches. "S"s don't like fast talking, quick pace responses. "S"s respond best to stable and sensitive leaders.

Leader Styles

The following describes different leadership styles. People tend to lead according to their personalities, rather than adapt to the styles of others.

"D" Leaders —

"D"s are take control and be in charge types. They don't like people telling them what to do. "D" leaders can be too pushy and forceful. They need to control their direct and demanding approach to management. They make better leaders when they learn to slow down, be gentle, and not so demanding of others.

"I" Leaders —

"I"s are inspiring and enthusiastic. They tend to talk too much. "I" leaders need to listen; they are so sensitive to rejection. They are the most positive leaders. "I"s love crowds, but not individuals.

"S" Leaders —

"S"s are the sweet, steady and stable. They don't demand anything. They are friendly and tend to be too nice. They need to be more aggressive. Overly sensitive to their shortcomings, "S"s need to be more confident. They hate to take risks. They often miss opportunities because of their caution. Reliable and relaxed, they are more reserved.

"C" Leaders —

"C"s are competent and compliant. They go by the book and want to do everything just right. They are thorough and detail-oriented, but tend to be too informative. "C"s need to be more positive and enthusiastic. They answer questions people aren't asking. When optimistic, "C"s are extremely influential. They should not concentrate on problems, but focus on potentials.

The most effective Leader is the blended Servant Leader. These type individuals learn how to adapt and become "all things to all men." They understand that everyone is often motivated by their specific personality. They guard their strengths from overuses, and improve/perfect (2 Cor. 12:9-10) their "uniquenesses / weaknesses."

Follower Styles

People also follow according to their personalities. Identifying individual followers' styles make leaders more effective.

"D" Followers —

"D"s respect strong leaders. They want to be part of a winning team. They follow with power and authority in mind. They wonder, "Will this action make me more respected and / or get the job done?" "D" followers need choices, rather than "get-in or get-out" ultimatums. They need opportunities to do their own thing.

"I"s follow leaders with their hearts. They tend to be impulsive and take opportunities that will make them look good a lot. They make great first impressions and ability to persuade often turn them over to rise to the top. Sometimes you are following whom.

"S"s don't make quick decisions. They like leading and gentle. They want to establish a leader who will be around for a long time.

"S"s are concerned about service and stability. When it comes to sensible and slow judgment, "S" followers feel right at home. They like familiar and low-key environments.

"C" Followers —

"C"s are "Consumer Report" type followers. They analyze each decision. They love research and development. "C"s are quality oriented followers. They don't like quick or costly decisions. Picky and precise, they follow with their minds, rather than hearts. "C"s seldom respond positively at first. They often want time to think about their decisions. Once convinced, they follow best.

Blended Servant Leaders allow the Holy Spirit to control their drives, passions, and wills in order to motivate others more wisely. Servant Leaders are Transformational Leaders who raise people up to follow on a higher plain. Anyone can be a Servant Leader. Your giftedness and "DISC" personality type is not most important. It's your relationship with God and others that makes the difference. God doesn't always call the qualified, but He always qualifies the called!

Biblical Resolution Management

Covenant —

In obedience to God's Holy Word and commitment to practicing Biblical Resolution Management, I promise to follow the Principle of Priorities. That is, my priorities are to glorify God, build harmony in the church, and avoid conflict. I will do as Matthew 18 admonishes—go to an offending brother "first alone."

First Step —

I will not first share the offense with another person. I am committed to restoring the relationship, rather than exposing possible sin. I recognize most problems with people are personality clashes, and I will try to understand their actions based upon their perspective.

Second Step —

If going to a person "first alone" does not resolve our differences, I promise to seek a neutral and mature individual who will listen to each of the problem. This person will shed light on one or both of our of needed growth in order to glorify God.

I recognize that the "witness" things I won't like, but I will believe in their wisdom and highly respected by the church.

Warning —

I will not seek to find others who have also been offended, nor share my concerns with potential "witnesses" prior to the meeting with my "offending brother." The purpose of having a "witness" is not to validate my hurt but rather to open my heart and mind to the possible needs I may have regarding my relationship with others.

I realize my friends may naturally listen to my concerns, but also take up my offense. I will, therefore, not cause them to become a party to a possible division and disharmony because of our friendship. Whenever I feel an urge to share the offense with my friends, I will pray and commune with God about my hurt.

Confronting Ministry Leaders —

I believe in the scriptural admonition to not rebuke an Elder (spiritual leader), other than in grave matters of misconduct and open sin (1 Timothy 5:19). I will earnestly pray for and follow those God has placed in leadership over me. I will not allow anyone to criticize them without following the principles in Matthew 18 and without the specific person present.

If I have a problem with my ministry leader, I will go "first alone" to them. I will not share my concern with anyone. I will listen and try to understand their perspective of the problem. If I am not satisfied with their explanation and continue to have animosity, I will ask their permission and counsel to find a "witness" who will listen to our conflict.

If the "witness" finds I have misunderstood the situation and should continue no further, I will trust God to complete His work in my life by casting my burden on him. If the "witness" agrees and finds the ministry leader wrong, we will go to him or her to hear the "witness," we will find two or three other "witnesses" who will listen and determine what God is doing in the situation.

If I find fault with a ministry leader and cannot resolve it in "spirit and truth," I will seek to join with another ministry rather than cause any conflict and disharmony. I am committed to pleasing God through resolving my conflicts, even if it means separating myself from the source of my irritations.

Ultimate Goal —

I commit myself to be spiritual rather than "normal" and supernatural rather than "natural" when it comes to solving my problems with others. I want God's will and way to resolve my conflicts and will do as the Holy Bible teaches, regardless of my normal and natural feelings.

My ultimate goal is to glorify God through bearing much fruit, getting involved in ministry, and avoiding and resolving conflicts.

Joy & Giftedness

The words "joy" and "gifts" are related in the Bible. They both come from the same Greek root word. Their connection has wonderful implications — real joy comes when we exercise our gifts. God divinely designed us with plan and purpose. His purpose was to bless us, by our discovering and using our giftedness for His glory.

Discovering our giftedness is fascinating. But the main thing is to keep the main thing the main thing! What is the main thing? It is to "glorify God with your body and spirit," 1 Cor. 6:19,20. We glorify God most, while reaping the benefits of true joy when we allow God to use us as He designed us.

Scripture admonishes us to "present our bodies, living sacrifices to God . . . to discover what is that good and acceptable will of God," Rom. 12:1,2. If you really want to discover God's will for your life, you must give God your giftedness. Give Him your feelings, thoughts, and actions, both naturally with your personality and supernaturally with your spiritual gifts.

The Bible teaches us not to be like children tossed to and fro, all mixed up in life. Instead we should "speak the truth in love that we may grow up in Christ," Eph. 4:15.

We all need to mature in Christ, so we can enjoy life as God intended!

Because these lessons are so important, your church has provided you with this tremendous learning experience. Everything would be wasted if you ended this study without determining to be involved in a specific ministry. Also learn how to avoid and resolve conflicts based upon Biblical Resolution Management principles and ministry will be more meaningful.

Consider making a commitment to follow Christ. Dedicate your giftedness to God. He wants to bless you more than you could ever imagine. Remember happiness is a choice. You will experience true joy, "charis," when you are exercising your giftedness. But you must make a commitment to exercise your giftedness.

Don't wait for anyone to ask you to get involved. Start this week by just showing up and saying,

"I'm ready to serve!"

Don't be surprised if things are a little disorganized and chaotic at times. Remember the Day of Pentecost was one of the most confusing, but glorious days of all!

Exercise your giftedness
to experience
joy!

All these insights should help you understand where you fit best in ministry. Remember, every member is a minister! This could be your Day of Pentecost, when God pours out His blessings on your life and uses you in ways you never dreamed. But it could also be a nightmare, because of people. Serve God, regardless of whatever conflicts and clashes you may have, and you WILL be blessed.

Keep your eyes on Christ and you will succeed!

My Action Plan

Prayerfully complete the following . It is not necessary to share with others, but you may want to find someone to pray with you concerning your desire and need to get involved in ministry. Ask your pastor or a church leader to help you go on from here. Take advantage of every opportunity to learn more. Review your entire report and trust God to use you in a great way!
